Russians Accused of Aiding in Mongol Attack.

Mongols Are Said to Have Extended Warfare.

Diplomatic Circles Look for Russian Intervention.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.) PEKING, Feb. 7.—Diplomatic difficulties, as well as occasional military incidents between Russians and Chinese, continue and are being watched closely by foreign representatives here.

The imperial foreign board recently sent a note to the Russian legation charging the Russian troops with aiding the Mongols in their attack on the Chinese garrison at the railroad station of the city of Manchuria. The Foreign Board requested the Russian legation to see that Russian troops observed neutrality.

In its reply the Russian legation says the Mongols, after their attack on the Chinese garrison, retreated into the railway zone, where the Russian troops arrested them. The troops of the Chinese garrison followed into the railway zone and attacked both the Mongols and the Russians, killing a Russian officer and a Russian soldier as well as several Mongolians.

Conditions in Manchuria evidently are becoming worse. Reports from Russian sources say the Mongols have carried the warfare to the Amur River, while brigand bands numbering hundreds have gone so far as to attack and rob the Imperial railway.

The authority of the Kuktuks, head of the Mongolian lama sect, who is now the Mongolian grand khan, has been removed from Khalkai, in the north of Mongolia, down to the Turkestan border.

In the Turkestan district itself, a three-cornered conflict is in progress between the imperial army, which has been driven from the country, and those who have deserted from the imperial army, and the native Mohammedans have taken the present opportunity to revolt. A number of Mohammedan subjects have been killed during the fighting between the rival parties.

The imperial foreign board has not made any reply to the report that Mongols, and in diplomatic circles no surprise would be felt at Russian intervention in Manchuria.

BANDITS ARE EXECUTED.

CHINESE WITNESSES CHEER.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.) SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 7.—So Kow, Lee Yoke Ng and Siung Fung, three bandits who terrorized the police of Kwang Tung province, were executed yesterday by Gen. Lee Hor Wan, according to a cablegram received today by the Chung Kai Yat Fo, a local Chinese newspaper. The crowd witnessed the execution cheered loudly as the sentence was carried out. The execution took place at San Ming near Canton.

REBEL CURRENCY ARRIVES.

TEN-DOLLAR BILLS AFLOAT.

(BY A. P. DAY WIRE TO THE TIMES.) SEATTLE, Feb. 7.—Three new ten-dollar treasury notes of the Chung Hau republic, with its capital at Nanking, China, have been received here. The bills contact on their face the following English:

"The Chinese Hau republic promises to pay here ten dollars gold on its formation, at the State treasury, or its agents abroad. (Signed) Sun Wen, President; Lee Ghonne, Hon. Treasurer." The bill witnessed the execution cheered loudly as the sentence was carried out. The execution took place at San Ming near Canton.

Irreconcilable Manchus Propose to Set Him Up on a Throne in Ancient Capital of Mukden.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.) PEKING, Feb. 7.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Prince Su, Prince Kung, Duke Tsui-Tse and Gen. Tsch-Liang have gone to Mukden. It is believed in high official circles that they are planning to establish in Manchuria an independent Manchu kingdom, with the boy Emperor on the throne.

The powerful Manchus named in the dispatch are leaders of the irreconcilables. In Peking, he is the most ardent admirer of Mukden. He is the ancient capital of the rulers of Manchuria, who conquered China in 1644 and established there the dynasty which is about to fall.

MEMOIRS OF A PRINCESS.

Toselli Sues Brussels Woman on the Charge of Faking Up Stuff About Louise of Savoy.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.) BRUSSELS, Feb. 7.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Signor Enrico Toselli, who married the ex-Crown Princess Louise of Savoy, brought suit today against a woman residing here for $20,000 for libel, accusing her of being the author of the memoirs of his wife, which were printed in the Paris Matin. Toselli says the use of his wife's name was a fraud. Cross-suits are pending now between Toselli and his wife for separation.

Toselli's charge is based on statements made in the memoirs as to Princess Louise's life at the Saxon court and her elopement with Andre Girod, who was her children's music teacher.

A statement was published recently that the memoirs had been written by an English woman living in Brussels, the same one who wrote questionable memoirs of the aged Countess de Castiglione.

Princess Louise, it was alleged, is unable to write anything.

BLIND TIGER ON HOLY SOIL.

Georgia Boys Find Many Pints of Whisky in a Church Yard.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

ALBANY (Ga.) Feb. 7.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Reaching down into a burrow in pursuit of a rabbit in the yard of the Baptist Church today, two boys found 100 pints of whisky hidden there. The members of the church were greatly shocked when told of the blind tiger under the sacred edifice.

BURIED BY AN AVALANCHE.

Man Digs Up and Out of It While His Loyal Dog tries to Dig in After Him.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.) SALMON CITY (Idaho) Feb. 7.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Hiriam Caswell, prospector in the mountains here, is alive after spending eight days in snowdrifts. Caswell was traveling on skis with a heavy pack strapped to his back, when an avalanche of snow from the mountain side overwhelmed him and he lost consciousness. When he regained his senses, all was dark and he found himself hanging head downward, his skin caught by several trees mowed down by the rush of snow. A stream of water coursed through the canyon in the bottom of which Caswell had been buried, had melted the snow about the entombed man and afforded him breathing space.

The prospector had to cut the straps that bound him to his pack and skis, and to climb upon the timber out of reach of the water. By this time the walls of the cabin had become solid ice, and against the tiny roof of his cage Caswell had to work to chip his way to freedom with his hunting knife.

How long Caswell chipped away, cutting a chimney through the ice to let out his breath he does not know. He has no means of telling the depth of the slide, and all he could do was to chip away in the darkness.

Caswell made his way out and the first sight that met his eyes was his pack and skis, and to climb upon the timber out of reach of the water. By this time the walls of the cabin had become solid ice, and against the tiny roof of his cage Caswell had to work to chip his way to freedom with his hunting knife.

SAN FRANCISCO TO HAVE "LID."

Shades Will Be Put on Very Bright Lights.

Barbary Coast Will Receive a Lime Bath.

Be the Texas Tommy Will Be Interdicted.

I DON'T WIRE TO THE TIMES.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 7.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) It is not going to be the old times of the last couple of weeks when the Police Commission will get their brand new lights on the bright-light section of the town. Last night the commissioners took the measure of the lid and found that the proper dimensions of all dance halls and resorts throughout the entire west of Kearny street and on Kearny street should be abolished.

The bright lights before the review will be dimmed and the houses will not be permitted on the number of saloons will be reduced to 1500 by granting old houses as old ones are abandoned.

AFTER THE "BLIND PIGS."

Commissioners that the commission is to allow the "blind pigs" of which are said to be about 2300 in the city according to the Royal Arch. And these parlors will be closely watched.

The number of saloons was increased and lasted for three hours and were Jesus E. Cook, president, Commissioners James Wood, Giro and Alexander O'Grady.

Clearing up the Barbary Avenue street of resorts is the work of the crusade that has been made on by the people of the North district, led by Rev. Terence Hayes.

Their demands have been met and not been flaunted on the homes of the persons in action.

The City Council will be instructed to "zone down" the Barbary. The lights must not burn brightly. That does not mean that illuminated signs will be permitted, either must not blazon their welcome to whilom.

The number of saloons of which is 1500 is a policy that will take time to work out, as there are over 2000 of them. Hereafter no saloon will be allowed to sell or serve beer, wine, porter, beer, etc., as the places go out of business. There has been recently a strong demand for licenses, the market for one for transfer being quoted at $1000 up to $1000. The new rule they cannot be put at any price.

TO SCOUR THE CITY.

Blind pigs are everywhere, according to the Royal Arch, and the police department will start to scour the city to put them out of business.

The Texas Tommy dance requires in for continuing to eliminate. The Public Welfare Committee of Supervisors has called a mini-conference on the Northern Pacific women of the Richmond Inn to discuss the object.

It may be forbidden in which is on the stage, or an ordinance may be passed to prohibit it. Commissioners considered the advisability of the committee viewing the "Tommy" in their official capacity.

Dr. Giannini, supervisor, has it might be all right in its place, subject to it on the part of the theaters.

Some censorship is needed, he said. Anna Held show should have stopped, declared the doctor, who was a line in it that would have been permitted on the Board of Control.

He decided that theater managers, proprietors of vaudeville and burlesque houses, the Chief of Police and the Police Commissioner be called into the conference to be held at the end of the month.

BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.

PORTLAND (Ore.) Feb. 7.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) The automobile of Dr. W. H. Glazier of this city, member of the Board of Medical Examiners, was struck by a car of the Central California Traction Company this morning and demolished. He was riding to work when he failed to see the electric car crossing on the crossing. In trying to turn the automobile into another street he skidded and went off the road, where it was struck by a car and torn to pieces. The accident occurred at 8:30 o'clock. The car was slightly damaged and continued on its trip after stops to give the crew to investigate.

WILLOWS (Cal.) Feb. 7.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) A deal was closed here yesterday afternoon and papers were filed in the U.S. Court whereby Dr. H. McNeer and associates of Los Angeles acquire 709 town lots and 1200 acres adjoining the town of Willoows. They are said to have agreed to pay $200,000 for the property, and to convert it into "town or suburban tract," as such areas are popular for homes in Southern California. The land will be all graded and parked, with trees and lawns, improved streets and walkways, after the manner of handling subdivisions in the southern part of the State. CANADIAN DENIES PERJURY.Differs With the Detectives in the Lorimer Case.Declares Letter of a Hold-up Was Only a Joke.Admits Trying to Borrow to Buy Farming Land.BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES:

WASHINGTON, Feb. 7.—Charles McGowan, of Regina, Can., denied before the Senate Lorimer committee of investigation today that he had ever admitted receiving money for persuading himself before the committee last July. Instead of receiving $150 for "service," his lawyer said, the detectives swore he told them, McGowan testified; that he was paid only $200 by a check signed "Edward Hines Lumber Company, by F. C. Wiehe, secretary," to reimburse him for unexpected loss incident to his presence in Washington to testify for Wiehe.

McGowan admitted he was in a hotel room in Toronto January 4 with Detective Shields, of whom he said he never had the suspicion that he was anything but what he pretended to be," a claims agent.

It was then that Bailey swore the $1500 statement was made and J. E. Sheridan swore he recorded such a statement as coming over a telephone apparatus from the room in which McGowan was alleged to have been staying. Under cross-examination McGowan swore that no talk occurred in the room about the Lorimer investigation or anything connected with it.

"Nothing was said about either by you or Bailey," inquired Senator Gandy.

"No, sir," responded McGowan. "One of the last things you had talked about was Wiehe was getting money from Wiehe, and you had written to Wiehe, and yet Bailey never asked you how much you got?" inquired Senator Lee.

"No, sir,"

McGowan's accounts of the time he was in the room varied from that given by the detectives.

Members of the committee subjected McGowan to prolonged examination as to a letter he wrote to Bailey after having been shown a letter from Wiehe. It was this letter, McGowan said, in speaking of the Hines people coming to McGowan's home in Toronto, that he had written "By God, they are here." He said when he forced hospitality was the old slogan would have been loaded with a couple of Peters No. 2; I made them accept them at that—not all I expected though, for I had half a mind getting it too. Had to threaten him with all kinds of exposure."

CALLS LETTER A JOKE.

McGowan finally said the suggestion of Senator Fletcher that the letter was a joke, was correct. McGowan said the threat of exposure was not made to Wiehe, but to M. J. Shields.

The story of Wiehe paying McGowan's expenses was the subject of extended inquiry.

Wiehe had telephoned he would pay McGowan's expenses, witness said, but he had nothing to do with his loss.

It developed that McGowan had testified in July he had sold his well drilling machine in September and had paid his expenses in October.

Lee and Kenyon questioned McGowan as to why he had some land in the Canadian Northwest at that point.

He said he had not sold Wiehe his expenses until October because he had expected to see him at that time when the committee sat in Chicago.

Prior to going to Chicago, McGowan testified, he had written Wiehe for the loan of $1500 to buy some land in the Canadian Northwest.

Wiehe, however, did not lend him the $1500. McGowan said, and Attorney Hansen produced from Wiehe offering to go into partnership on the deal if McGowan could produce securities.

McGowan told of meeting Detectives Shields and Lee.

"Did you ever tell Bailey or anybody else that you had perjured yourself terribly for the Hines bunch, or that, in substance?" asked Attorney Hansen.

"No, sir."

GOMPERS GETS IN HOT WATER.Says He Quoted Shakespeare and Was Not Profane.Explaining Basis of Present Contempt Proceedings.Precautions Taken for Safety of Judge Wright.BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 7.—Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, today told the court which is trying him, Frank Morrison and John Mitchell for contempt, that when he wrote that "the court 'go to its injunction,'" he had used the expression in the Shakespearean sense and not a profane one.

Gompers exonerated John Mitchell, former vice-president of the Federation, who was sentenced to nine months in jail for contempt.

Mr. Gompers said Mr. Mitchell did not sign the pronouncement for which the labor leaders are being prosecuted, but that his name had been attached as a matter of course.

Attorney Darlington read the injunction decree to Mr. Gompers and questioned him on it phrase by phrase.

When he asked if he were permitted to appear in the American Federation in violation of the injunction, Gompers said, he believed that his constitutional rights had been invaded and that those portions of the injunction to which he took exception were void.

GUARD JUSTICE WRIGHT.

Counsel precautions taken to guard Justice Wright were apparent at the trial. Policemen and a deputy United States Marshal escorted him to his chambers. The judge has received many threatening letters.

Mr. Gompers and Attorney Darlington had several verbal clashes. Mr. Darlington asked Mr. Gompers if he had not repeatedly violated the injunction by printing coercive statements in the "Inquirer."

"I object to the word 'guilty,'" said Mr. Gompers. "I ask that when you address me, you do so in respectful language."

"I repeat that this was printed in the 'Inquirer' of news," retorted Mr. Darlington.

GOMPERS IS INSULTED.

That is untrue and an insult, and I shall insist, under the protection of the court, that counsel use proper language in addressing me," shouted Mr. Gompers. Justice Wright or-dered the question read and Mr. Gompers answered it.

The possibility of a noted lawyer being involved in the contempt proceedings with Mr. Gompers was raised by the defense. Mr. Gompers had testified that he was advised by counsel that he would not be in contempt if he published articles which "you advised you?" asked Justice Wright.

"I prefer not to say, unless the court compels me," answered the witness.

There was a craning of necks and Allen R. Parker, chief counsel for Mr. Gompers, elucidated the situation by his client.

Mr. Gompers' right insisted on an answer. Mr. Gompers named a firm of Washington lawyers, but said he could not remember the individual who had advised him.

CHICAGO (ILL.) Feb. 7.—(Exclusive) Jim O'Leary, the widely known local gambler, is willing to bet $5 to 1 that Lord Falconer will marry Mrs. William B. Leeds' widow of the stockyards millionaire. He started the book today when he heard that the Earl of Kintore, father of Lord Falconer, had made an offer to wager $5 to 1 on the event.

"I haven't the pleasure of the lady's acquaintance," said the stockyards gambler today. "Nor do I ever remember having run across the British during my peregrinations abroad. There is just one way to make a bet on any sporting proposition—the Earl of Kintore seems to have the way to do it to make your odds on past performances." And the "dog" figures the percentage and then cuts up your odds.

"On the past performances of American heroines, where suitors for their hands in the persons of foreign potentates were concerned, I should say the odds on Falconer ought to be like this."

"Our American girls and women—those don't seem to be able to withstand these fellows any better than those unscrupulous girls—are past performances show it."

"I think you should pick Falconer for your winner in this matrimonial contest."

"I'd be willing to lay a little bet on another phase of this prospective matrimonial marriage. I'd be willing to bet two to one odds of 5 to 1 that, if the widow of the stockyards king does herself and her man to this nobleman, she will not live him a year after the marriage."

Italian Bankers at Salt Lake Arrested at Instance of Countryman Who Had Trusted Them.

(BY A. P. DAY WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

SALT LAKE CITY, Feb. 7.—Contingent seized the Italian settlement last night when two Italian bankers were arrested, accused of withholding money entrusted to them for transmission to Italy. V. J. Bombino, senior partner of Bombino Brothers, bankers, merchants and transportation agents, and his manager, William Milano, are the prisoners.

Casino Buaco, employed in a railroad roundhouse at Glendale Ferry, Idaho, is the complainant. His story is that he sent Bombino Brothers $200 to be forwarded to his mother at Rome. She complained that the money had not reached her and Buaco asked for an explanation.

Bombino, he alleges, insisted that the money had been sent, but showed no receipts.

When officers served the warrants they found notices of assignment posted in the Bombino establishment. The brothers are the only Italian bankers in this region and have been the medium for the shipment of thousands of small remittances to Europe. Italians in Nevada and Idaho, as well as in Utah have entrusted them with this service.

NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 7.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) An order issued today by the immigration department in Washington quashing an order against Dr. R. Guzman, his wife, child and maid for deportation from the United States, ended a ten-year struggle between Dr. Guzman and the Guatemalan government. Dr. Guzman is editor of the Panama-American newspaper published in Guatemala City. The editor once was on the staff of President Estrada Cabrera, and charges that knowledge of cruelties practiced by the executive caused him to resign. Dr. Guzman had an order to report to the United States to stand trial, but he continued his work and was thrown into prison. Released through political influence, he escaped again, but escaped, he alleges, his brothers and sisters and even his mother, who were persecuted, and that this persecution was extended into Mexico, where he sought asylum. From Mexico he fled to France, where emissaries of Guatemala made it so unpleasant that he came to the United States.

The decision today sets aside the last attempt to extradite him, and he intends to remain here.

quail, the meadowlark, and other denizens of the forest enjoy undisturbed freedom.

There are no objectionable features in or adjacent to Westmoreland Place. All improvements are of the best—sewers, gas, water, electricity—every modern convenience. Electric wiring is underground—no unsightly poles. The Broadway lighting system has been extended down Main and out Pico street, providing a perfectly lighted route to and from the city—a feature that is enjoyed by few of the more exclusive residence sections.

West Pico and West Eleventh street cars pass Westmoreland Place, furnishing a seven-minute service. Its nearness to the city solves, in a great measure, the question of "help" for the residents of Westmoreland Place.

Really high-class residence property, within easy reach of business, is a scarce commodity in all of the large cities of the Old World, and of this country. With the continuous growth of Los Angeles, there is bound to be an ever-increasing demand for property such as Westmoreland Place.

Lots and residences in Westmoreland Place, at present prices, represent a substantial investment—one that is sure to yield handsome returns. Inside lots are all 100x200 feet, corners 150x200. For further particulars, call on or address the owners.

Hundreds of ministers of the gospel are regularly at these church services and are among the most interesting hearers of the evangelist and his most ardent admirers. There is no cessation in the work, but it seems rather to grow more strenuous as the days fly by; and as for the gipsy evangelist he appears to thrive on a multiplicity of meetings, and his voice doesn't wear out. It may get tired, but if it does nobody knows it but its gipsy owner.

Rev. H. L. Park said at the close of last night's meeting: "He is the author of its tariff policy, under which trade, industry and agriculture had prospered so well."

INTERNATIONAL SITUATION.

Then came the part of the Emperor's speech for which members of

SOCIALISTS SNUB KAISER AT REICHSTAG OPENING.

(By A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

BERLIN, Feb. 7.—Emperor William in person attended today the opening of the Reichstag, the thirteenth assembled since the foundation of the German empire. As is customary, instead of going to the Imperial Parliament, the Emperor called the members to the palace, where he made his speech from the throne in the great white hall. The deputies present were for the most part in uniform or court dress, but no representative of the Social Democratic party, comprising more than one-fourth of the membership of the House, put in an appearance.

Led by the oldest member of the Reichstag, the Radical, Albert Traeger, all the deputies joined in the customary three cheers as the Emperor entered. He was attended by several of the royal princes and surrounded by all the pomp and ceremonial of a medieval pageant. He was preceded by mounted heralds and gray-habited men bearing the crown and scepter, the sword of state, the imperial banner, and other emblems of the dignity and interests of Germany.

TO THE THRONE.

The Emperor walked straight to throne, mounted the dais, and placing his helmet on his head, read his speech, which is taken from the hands of the Imperial Chancellor.

The main note of the speech was the demand for additions to the military and naval forces which are considered necessary in the present international situation. After members of the Imperial Parliament in the name of the government of the empire's confederated states, the Emperor affirmed his desire to augment the welfare of all classes of the people of Germany and maintain the strength and prestige of the nation.

He appealed to the new Parliament to continue the work of the old, to maintain the financial and economic condition of the army and navy.

"I greet you, gentlemen, at the opening of the new session of the Imperial Parliament in the hope that your work will be of service to the nation and to the empire."

Cheers were raised as the Emperor referred to the satisfactory condition of the imperial finances, and to the continuation of the traditional tariff system of Germany, which, he proposed, was particularly marked when he proclaimed the necessity for strengthening the army and navy.

When the Emperor had concluded the speech, the Chancellor announced that the Reichstag was opened and the ceremony closed. The Empress and several princesses witnessed the ceremony from the gallery of the Hall of State.

A short formal session of the Reichstag afterward was held in the Imperial Parliament building, but no important business was transacted.

Bacon, attorney for the receiver of the Niles (Mich.) bank, which is suing for an insurance company to Kimmel's estate, to Andrew J. White, a former New York convict, who the defense contends is Kimmel, as the claimant.

"White, according to Bacon's statement to the jury, was first discovered on June 25, 1895, eleven months after Kimmel disappeared in San Francisco. Bacon called the jurors' attention to the fact that Kimmel at that time would have been 22 years old and that he had stated to the prison authorities he was 62. White had blue eyes and Kimmel had dark brown eyes, according to the attorney.

WOMEN DECIDE
BOND ELECTION.Garbage Incinerator Money
Has Been Voted.Police Unable to Stop Bold
Burglars' Work.Shakespeare Club Proposes to Buy Up Stock.PASADENA, Feb. 8.—The $60,000 garbage incinerator bond election carried by a vote of about three and one-half to one. yesterday. Three thousand and ninety-nine ballots were cast. Of these 2,404 were for the bonds and 488 against. The returns by precincts follow:

President	Yotes Cast For Against
One	505 245
Two	505 245
Three	501 235
Four	503 235
Five	495 235
Six	495 234

In spite of the fact that there was not a single subject to be voted on the election was an interesting one and until the count had been begun both sides claimed victory.

In some precincts the women voters numbered about one-half. Despite the fact that it was their first opportunity to vote they were, for the most part, well posted. In fact, the few instances where voters appeared ignorant or listless upon the subject were in the cases of men. The total vote had been counted and reported to City Clerk Dyer at 8 o'clock last night.

"The women did it," said Mayor Thum last night, "and now we will have a new city." The Council is pleased that the people of Pasadena have done the right thing towards Alhambra thus far. Just how soon we will have an incinerator depends upon the men who will build it and the City Engineer. But we are going right after it.

"A Council committee has been appointed, composed of Councilman Rhodes Root and Chaffee. This committee will determine the method whereby the people may express themselves freely and thoroughly as to the location of a site.

"It will determine first, how sites may be proposed and expressed, and then how sites which are proposed may be voted on."

City Attorney Carr and other city officials are interested in the question of permanent polling places.

"This election," said Carr, "last night" "was fought over the fact that since women are to vote in Pasadena we need better polling places than we had today. There should be permanent places where all arrangements for the polls are made and the location of which may be known without the residents of the precincts in which they would be."

BURGLARS OPERATE.

Although the police have been to pick up a burglar, or burglars, continually to commit robberies in the city, the police have been unable to find the guilty party.

Glendale.

GIRDING THEIR LOINS FOR FIGHT TO FINISH.

GLENDALE, Feb. 8.—The fight for the water supply of Tropicana, North Verdugo, a part of North Glendale and a section of the Verdugo Canyon to Glendale grows fiercer daily. Inside city matters are comparatively peaceful, but the residents of the proposed territories to be annexed are divided.

The Casa Verdugo Improvement Association, Col. Thomas Thornton, M. V. Hartman, Sidney Dell and others are fighting the battle for the antis. Their main objection seems to be that the proposed district does not take in all of the extensive Rose and Thorn orange groves, which occupy the territory from the northern city limits of Glendale to the foothills. Already a large portion of these ranches are in this city and another wide association is in the proposed district to be annexed.

The antis are advancing that Casa Verdugo becomes incorporated as a city of six thousand and two thousand, the home of Dr. Brougher, will be the principal speaker.

Dr. J. W. Brougher, pastor of the Temple Baptist Church of Los Angeles, has been secured to lecture in Glendale on February 20 to fill the vacancy caused by the illness of Dr. H. West, vocalists, and Miss Katherine Trevette, electionist, will take part in the programme.

Dr. J. W. Brougher, pastor of the Temple Baptist Church of Los Angeles, has been secured to lecture in Glendale on February 20 to fill the vacancy caused by the illness of Dr. H. West, vocalists, and Miss Katherine Trevette, electionist, will take part in the programme.

In honor of the birthday of Abraham Lincoln a patriotic programme will be given at the High School auditorium Friday afternoon. Maj. Ayers will be the principal speaker. The W.R.C. and G.A.R. of the valley will attend a body.

CIVIC LEAGUE.

An open meeting has been called by the Home Lovers' Civic League for next Thursday evening to be held in the Methodist Church of Casa Verdugo. Mrs. Charles Hughes, vice-president of the association; Mrs. Cora Lewis of the Woman's Progressive League of Los Angeles, and Mrs. J. S. Norwell of Los Angeles. The ladies are present for a great time and as an inducement promise souvenirs to all attending.

M. V. Hartman, a leader of the opposition to annexation, is a large land owner in Verdugo Canyon, and is trying to keep his land out of this city. The prospect of being on the scene of battle every moment Hartman has taken apartments in Pepper Tree Inn in Casa Verdugo. From there he is directing the campaign against annexation. A source of water supply for this valley is in the Verdugo Canyon, those fighting for annexation are equally determined that the upper valley section shall not be included in Glendale's limits.

The Verdugo Canyon is also the source of water supply of Tropicana, North Verdugo, a part of North Glendale and a section of the Verdugo Canyon to Glendale grows fiercer daily. Inside city matters are comparatively peaceful, but the residents of the proposed territories to be annexed are divided.

RAIN ON CATALINA.

Washingtonians Officially Secure
Anglers' Buttons—New Eagles Initiated Into the Order.

AVANIA, Feb. 7.—While fishing near Catalina in the launch Crete, J. F. Archibald and wife of Washington secured two silicore which entitled both anglers to the skipper and buttons of the light-tackle class of the Tuna Club. The fish landed by Mrs. Archibald weighed 22½ pounds.

Elaborate preparations were made for the initiation of seventeen new members at the headquarters of the order. Tunefish, a real live California goat featured conspicuously in the parade prior to the reception of the new members.

A slight rain commenced falling during the afternoon this morning and continued throughout the day. Already the great trees show considerable improvement. The rain was reported much heavier in the interior of the island.

Tennis: Tennis at Coronado.

Prominent speakers will give addresses on subjects of vital municipal interest, such as sewers, electrifying the steam railways and the telephone situation.

Miss Charlotte Hoek has been employed as Batavia teacher in the grammar schools of the city by the board of trustees. Her duties will be to teach school children, or those that need special coaching.

Fifty of the High School boys will attend the Students' League banquet to be held in Hamburger's Cafe Saturday evening under the auspices of the Y.M.C.A. Dr. John Willis Baer the toastmaster.

City Attorney Chapman, acting under instructions of the City Trustees, has asked the Pacific Electric Company to vacate its franchise for the right-of-way extending over the vine street, between Garfield and Meridian avenues and to remove the tracks now on the street.

A "dinky" car was run over this line every day but seldom carries a passenger. The manager for the line says that they have been informed that Manager Shoup concurs with them in this opinion and would be glad to remove the tracks with the city's consent.

United States Casualty Company of New York City, who has been visiting his sister, Mrs. E. L. Dowling, for several weeks, has left for San Francisco. This was Mr. Samuel's first trip to Southern California and he is delighted with the country.

The discussion of the organization of a Y.M.C.A. here is being renewed because of the assurance of Arthur Letts of Los Angeles that he will assist in such a movement financially. F. H. Oster and others of this city have for a long time been interested in a Y.M.C.A. for this city. Years ago an association was started, but was not very vigorous and discontinued and of recent years the boys' and young men's departments of the churches have filled part of the field.

POMONA TAXPAYERS.

Seek to Settle With City on Installation Plan—Letts Would Aid New Y.M.C.A.

POMONA, Feb. 7.—E. C. Bichowsky has presented to the City Council a petition signed by more than 300 prominent taxpayers and the local banks asking that the Council pass an ordinance to make legal arrangements so that city taxes on the future will be paid in two installments.

Although it is figured that this new plan will cost the city $600 more a year for additional help, it is thought that it will be worth much more than that in convenience to the taxpayers of Pomona.

It is proposed that the first installment of city taxes be made to fall due the last Monday in August, becoming delinquent the last Monday in October, and that the second installment be paid by the last Monday in January and become delinquent the last Monday in March.

Those in charge of the laying out of the grounds of the Elbell Club have written to the First Presbyterian Church adjoining, will confer with a view to making a broad expanse of nicely terraced front lawn sweeping the entire length of the block upon which the club is located. The proposed arrangement will make one of the most attractive frontages in the city.

The funeral of Mrs. Emily L. Billings, widow of the late George W. Billings, father of Mrs. F. L. Perkins, was held yesterday evening at W. B. Todd's Chapel on North Garey avenue and interment was made in Pomona cemetery. The deceased was 72 years old and had lived here for 8 years.

Alexander A. Samuel, auditor of the United States Casualty Company of New York City, who has been visiting his sister, Mrs. E. L. Dowling, for several weeks, has left for San Francisco. This was Mr. Samuel's first trip to Southern California and he is delighted with the country.

DATE OF ELECTION.

School Trustees Seek to Issue Bonds for New Buildings Along the Coast.

VENICE, Feb. 7.—The school trustees have decided that the proposed school bond election should be held March 19 and the official call has been issued. The request is for bonds for the grammar schools in the sum of $60,000. This is agreeable to the resolutions adopted by the citizens in mass meeting and will provide for addition to the present school building needed for new structures at Playa del Rey, Fredricks and on Short Line Beach.

It is proposed to make the Shaw Folks' Charity Ball an annual affair. Permanent officers have been elected as follows: F. K. McCarver, president; C. Y. Burns, vice-president; J. D. Carey, secretary; R. T. Gill, treasurer. There are numerous honorary vice-presidents and other officials. The first charity ball is to be held here on the eve of St. Valentine's day.

HIGH TIDES CONTINUE.
REDONDO BEACH, Feb. 5.—The high seas and heavy waves still continue along the waterfront. This morning at 3 o'clock the wharf at the power plant was again badly damaged by the terrific waves. The waves which carry the salt water to the power plant for condensing purposes, were forced into the sea. The damage done, until adjustment will be approximately $10,000. The tide was one-half.

Owing to the extreme high and low tides which have been in evidence the past week, many stones have been found at the moonstone beaches.

Coronado concert February 18.

NEW MUNICIPAL PIER.

HERMOSA BEACH, Feb. 7.—As a result of the committee appointed by the Commercial Club of this city to investigate the cost of the prospective municipal pier, $44,000 is estimated to be the lower price of construction.

The pier is to be 100 feet long and made of concrete. At the foot it will be 100 feet wide for the first 200 feet and will gradually narrow to 25 feet at the end. This pier will be a pleasure pier. The members of the club are willing to vote $100,000 bonds for the erection of this city improvement.

between San Pedro on the north and San Quintin on the south during the past three weeks. Lieutenant Commander Louis C. Richardson has had the entire Pacific fleet engaged in the work and according to reports this is the most successful ever undertaken by the fleet.

The problem worked out by the dredges is how to prevent an attack on the coast line lying immediately north of the Mexican boundary. The torpedo boats Rowan and Paul Jones have played the role of the destroyers, while the gunboats are equipped with wireless apparatus. They have worked together in excellent manner, however, and are said to have caused the balance of the considerable work in the last three weeks.

A chase for two vessels has been in progress during the past four days. The destroyer Stewart, on escort duty, has been leading the pursuit of the two boats.

MEAN STAND GUARD.

Councilman H. R. Fay has determined men on guard watching the city water mains tonight in an effort to prevent the acts of vandalism of unknown parties who have been turning high pressure mains into the low-pressure pipes, deteriorating the service and who, but for the vigilance of those who, but for the vigilance of the two boats, would have wrecked the system.

Fay served notice on the water department employees this morning that he would demand payment of $2,000, dated June 19, 1911. She could not recall what this money was for except that it had been given her by Mrs. Thurston as a loan.

J. F. Knoche, vice-president and general manager of the Universal Brotherhood and Theosophical Society after having been called by the plaintiff in the Thurston will contest here this afternoon.

Mrs. Katherine Tingley was among those called. The purpose of the plaintiff was said to be to identify a number of checks Mrs. Tingley had written while here. Mrs. Tingley was still at the station, though all right until she left. Employees gave up their positions to set aside the deed in question.

The trouble is said to have followed soon after the resignation of a foreman who had had the only complete knowledge of the location of the different stop cocks in the city, causing the interruption in his work and is accused of refusing to give up this data.

Thus far serious damage has been averted. Fay has taken the report of the council board and tonight it is expected that he has mastered the situation.

LONG OVERDUE.

Anxiously is beginning to be felt by Mrs. Thurston, for the safety of the El Centro school and other purposes.

William Stevens, champion in the case of Mrs. Tingley, has been called. One check written by Mrs. Thurston was in his favor for $1,000. Stevens testified that Mrs. Stevens had given him money for the El Centro school, which he had shown her the instant he had taken in caring for his children. He had no recollection of another check for $1,000 in his name and bears his memorandum.

He will be recalled again tomorrow morning to see if he can remember for what purpose this $1,000, as well as another check, were given him.

DESERET CHINESE.

That they had been detected by the government immigration officials is believed to have caused the desertion of a number of agents of the Chinese contrabands from the total value of the William Patterson's estate down to the most trifling holdings of his son, George, Eugene Daney, counsel for the defense, said.

George, Eugene Daney, counsel for the defense, said that the cross-examination of George Patterson this morning dealt almost entirely with the subject of finance, after delving deep into the mystery of the large amount of the Patterson estate.

Mr. Daney, attorney for the defense, told the grand jury that the report of the grand jury will recommend that the office be abolished.

Bids for the twelve-inch water main to be laid on D street from Highland avenue to Base Line will be opened by the City Water Commission next Tuesday, instead of Monday, as advertised. The change of date is due to Monday being a holiday on account of the new year.

The railroad commission has ordered plans for a county bridge to cross the Mojave River between Victorville and Oro Grande, on what is known as the "river road." The cost of the proposed bridge will be $12,000, according to the engineer's estimate.

NEW BOARD OF TRADE.

Perry Citizens Elect Officers for Organization Proposing to Boom Business of the City.

PERHAPS, Jan. 6.—An adjourned session of citizens was held Tuesday evening for the purpose of perfecting the organization of the Board of Trade. A. C. Huff presided and P. Milligan was secretary. A constitution was adopted, and the following officers were elected: P. Milligan, president; A. C. Huff, vice-president; Dr. T. L. Lanier, treasurer; J. C. Canning, secretary.

"It did not," was the emphatic witness then explained that of the children were given $100.

Witnesses had deducted, which in one left somewhere in the neighborhood of $20,000, possibly more.

COTTON GROWERS FORM BUSINESS ASSOCIATION.

El Centro has reached the metropolitan stage where the City Trustees have adopted a house-numbering ordinance, and many of the business houses and residences have already complied with the provisions of the ordinance. El Centro's position is one of a sufficient volume of business to warrant a free delivery system, but the Postoffice Department refuses to install this service until all houses are numbered and all streets carry signs. The new move is to wards that end.

MOVED A FIRE.

A midnight fire was discovered in a carload of cotton seed owned by William Brandenburg on the side tracks at Calexico. It was out of reach of the fire department and a Southern Pacific engine was hooked onto the car and the hose directed to the point where the fire hose could play a stream of water on the blaze. The car was ruined. A hobo smoking in the car caused the fire.

SOLDIERS VOTE IMPORTANT.

At the election recently held in Spanish Fork, California, it developed that there were six votes to the advantage of the Huddins candidate. Arrangements had been made to poll the vote of the soldiers sent to Mexico and this vote is now being transported to Ensenada to be counted. Therefore the vote of the soldiers at Spanish Fork will decide the result of this election.

VALLEY BRIBES.

County Surveyor C. N. Perry has been granted a sixty-days' leave of absence from the county by the County Supervisors.

The cotton gin at Durbrow in the valley was brought up twice in one day last week and was saved only by hard work.

Promoters of the Dixieland station, on the San Diego and Arizona road, have arranged for the sinking of a well on the townsite to prospect for artesian water.

Arrangements have been made for the erection of a $10,000 brick business block in the new town of Dixieland.

The Supervisors of Imperial County have instructed Dist.-Atty. Swig to prepare an amendment to the county's ordinance to prohibit the sale of all drinks containing 2 per cent of alcohol. This is to cover the various concoctions generally known in the valley as "2 per cent."

The question as to how long you are going to continue a sufferer from indigestion, dyspepsia or out-of-order stomach is merely a matter of how soon you begin taking some Diapespain.

If your stomach is lacking in digestive power, why not help the stomach do its work, not with drastic drugs, but a re-enforcement of digestive agents, such as are naturally at work in the stomach.

People with weak stomachs should take a little Diapespain occasionally, and there will be no more indigestion, no feeling like a lamb led to the Ark, no burping, no belching of undigested food, headaches, dizziness or sick stomach, and, besides, what you eat will not ferment and poison your breath with nauseous odors. All these symptoms resulting from a sour, out-of-order stomach and dyspepsia are generally relieved in five minutes after taking a little Diapespain.

To your druggist and get a 50-cent can of Pape's Diapespain now, and you will always go to the table with a smile, appreciate what you eat will taste good, because your stomach and intestines will be clean and fresh, and you will know there are not going to be any more bad nights and miserable days for you. They refresh you and make you feel like life is worth living.

The following is the complete itinerary of the excursion:

Wednesday, February 14, leaves Los Angeles 9 p.m.; arrives Brawley 4:30 a.m.; leaves Thermal 5:30 a.m.; arrive Imperial 9:30 a.m.; leave Cañon 12 m.; leave Caliente 1:15 p.m.; arrive Holtville 2:15 p.m.; leave Holtville 4:30 p.m.; arrive El Centro 4:15 p.m.

COMMISSION UPHELD.

ACTION CONFIRMS REDUCTION.

Action by the State Railroad Commission in reducing freight rates between Los Angeles and San Pedro was upheld yesterday by the United States District Court, according to a dispatch received last night from San Francisco. Judge Van Fleet fled an injunction which the demurrer of the commission to the complaint filed by the Southern Pacific was sustained.

This was one of the most important rate cases to come before the State Railroad Commission in recent years. The complaint against the railroad company in question was brought by the citizens of this city and was stubbornly contested by the railroad.

The train arrived at the Arcadia Station from Burbank at noon, and from 1:20 to 4:20 o'clock the train was open to the public. Every phase of farm life is shown in the lectures and exhibits.

From here the train goes through the Imperial and Coachella valleys to the Mexican boundary.

The cars contained full and comprehensive exhibits of illustrative material, covering various phases of agriculture and commerce in the State and for the distance between Los Angeles and the Santa Fe at Los Angeles is in San Diego.

Public Service: City Hall, Courts.

SUMMARY OF THE DAY.

The sale of the aqueduct power and Harbor bond issues is expected to be completed in New York today by W. H. Mathews, and the Council will call a special session to ratify it.

The husband and a brother and sister of a woman who cut off her spouse in her will are making fight for a fortune in the Superior Court.

At the City Hall.

FINAL WORD ON SALE OF BONDS.

COUNCIL EXPECTS DEAL TO BE CLOSED IN NEW YORK TODAY.

Conference late yesterday afternoon ends with all officials happy over probabilities—nothing disclosed as to the terms of the sale.

A hasty call for a special session of the Council today would not surprise the members. The necessity may be found in the closing of the deal for the sale of the aqueduct power and harbor bonds, aggregating $10,700,000, by W. H. Mathews, in New York, if the sale is made. The Council may prefer to confirm it and take other action necessary.

Another telegram from Mathews yesterday caused the Mayor, the aqueduct officials and the Council to meet at the aqueduct offices late yesterday afternoon. It is understood the message set out the conditions under which the three New York syndicates are ready to make the purchase and supply the money needed at periods advantageous to the city. While no official announcement of the message was made it is also understood that the negotiations are such as the city may accept in order to insure its chances on the three projects.

After the meeting neither Mayor Alexander nor Gen. Chaffee would make any statement other than that they were indicated strongly that a deal is imminent.

The Mayor received another offer from a local bank yesterday to take $700,000 of the bonds, but no action was taken on this because the entire financial authority had been placed in Mathews' hands and he seems to be managing it successfully.

The company denies that the Board of Trade was to act as trustees for the donors, but the authority indicated strongly that a deal is imminent.

The Mayor received another offer from a local bank yesterday to take $700,000 of the bonds, but no action was taken on this because the entire financial authority had been placed in Mathews' hands and he seems to be managing it successfully.

Whether the city abandons its demands for premium or agrees to a policy of suspension of debt making for a long enough period for the three issues to be digested, the bond market, however, is more or less uncertain.

The old syndicate, headed by Kounine Brothers, refused its option on the final four millions of aqueduct bonds because it wanted a definite premium as far as where the city debt would stand and the going rate.

When the Mayor and Councilmen returned from their luncheon dinner at San Pedro they were met at the Pacific Electric station with a summons to Gen. Chaffee, who was in the city. The situation was laid before them and approval was given the steps that Mathews had reported and his authority was confirmed in full.

All present left when the meeting was over with the appearance of men who knew that the period of anxiety is over.

The Mayor hurried from the meeting to his office where he affixed his signature to the ordinance empowering the aqueduct investigating board to summon witnesses and to conduct a trial date.

The ordinance bears an emergency clause, putting it into effect at once. The Mayor said he had heard no threats of a Socialist injunction. The members of the Socialist party were threatening to use every possible method of obstructing the board in its probing and would have invoked the referendum, they say, on the ordinance, but for the emergency clause.

GOLDEN GLOW OF WOMAN'S ESTATE.

HAD SMALL BEGINNING, IS NOW LARGE FORTUNE.

She Inherited Twenty Thousand
Many Years Ago, Was Stricken With Paralysis, Her Mind Seemed Affected, and She Sold Husband for Accounting.

From an original investment of $25,000 or $30,000 the Ingorsell estate, now worth $100,000, has grown to a valuation of $100,000, and this fortune is in the center of a legal battle in Judge Bordwell's courtroom of the Superior Court.

Miss Rosetta S. Ingorsell seventeen years ago inherited $20,000 from her parents and under an agreement with her husband turned the money into a common fund. She was stricken with paralysis in July, 1893, and died a year later, failing to affect her mind. In October she commenced suit against her husband, C. K. Ingorsell, for an accounting of the trust.

Prior to the suit, Mrs. Ingorsell made her will, but it had not been executed, so the practice of serving papers on a dummy appears to be done often in the case of husband, than the wife, and Judge Monroe declared that he would meet this person, who would acknowledge that he is the defendant in the action.

Judge Monroe issued an ultimatum yesterday. Hereafter he will not grant a decree in a divorce proceeding where he is not satisfied that proof of service has been made.

He said that it had come to the knowledge of this court that a person representing the defendant would go to a rooming-house and register under the name of the defendant.

The plaintiff would then inform the process server that this person to be served was in fact a man, a son of the same name. He would meet this person, who would acknowledge that he is the defendant in the action.

Judge Monroe issued an ultimatum yesterday. Hereafter he will not grant a decree in a divorce proceeding where he is not satisfied that proof of service has been made.

He said that it had come to the knowledge of this court that a person representing the defendant would go to a rooming-house and register under the name of the defendant.

The plaintiff would then inform the process server that this person to be served was in fact a man, a son of the same name. He would meet this person, who would acknowledge that he is the defendant in the action.

The result of this has been that on numerous occasions the defendant would not be served, but had not been served, so the practice of serving papers on a dummy appears to be done often in the case of husband, than the wife, and Judge Monroe declared that he will cause a warrant to be issued for Mrs. Cohn.

Miss Viva Brainerd,
Who assisted as maid at the Schilling-Brainerd wedding last evening.

THE wedding of Miss Grace Mellus, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Mellus of South Alvarado street, and Lieutenant-Commander Samuel Brown Thomas was solemnized yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the California Club.

Bishop Joseph H. Johnson read the service in the presence of Mr. and Mrs. Mellus and Lieutenant-Commander Hall, who came south to assist as best man.

Lieutenant-Commander Thomas is out of danger and, at the end of a fortnight, it is believed by Dr. Bryant that he will be able to leave for Mare Island.

Mrs. Monnette Hostess.

Mrs. Ora E. Monnette of No. 2161 Wilshire boulevard, was hostess yesterday afternoon at a bridge party. Twenty-four guests were present. Spring blossoms decorated the home.

Miss Schilling a Bride.

Miss Anna Schilling and Ceylon Brainerd, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Brainerd of Elmer avenue, were married yesterday in a service having been read by Rev. G. M. Manisala, assisted by Rev. Arthur S. Phelps, in the Central Baptist Church.

Miss Schilling chose for her wedding gown a handsome creation of white satin and lace. Over a full tulle veil she carried a shower of bride roses. Miss Helen Schilling assisted as maid of honor, and Miss Viva Brainerd was bridesmaid, both wearing dainty bows of pink carnation with an overdrapery of marquisette, trimmed with swansdown. Earl Daniels was best man and Charles Daniels was as usher.

Following the service at the church, where the decorations were of white flowers and greenery, a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, 1158 South Alvarado street, of No. 1158 South Alvarado street. A large table adorned with pink carnations was arranged for the bridal party, while eight smaller tables seated the guests.

At the conclusion of a honeymoon trip Mr. and Mrs. Brainerd will make their home on Fifty-third street.

Surprise to Friends.

Mrs. Bertha Nelson of Ocean Park and F. E. Browne, a retired capitalist of this city, stole quietly away to Santa Ana yesterday morning and were married.

In April Mr. and Mrs. Browne will leave for a tour of the world. Until that time they will be at home with friends at No. 2519 South Figueroa street.

Another Wedding.

Miss Ruth McArdle and Ralph Cantburn of Minneapolis, Minn., were married yesterday in Central Church. Rev. Baker P. Lee officiated. The bride, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John De Sale McArdle, was attired in white crepe mètore trimmed with pearls and lace. She wore a veil and carried a white purse book. Miss Antoinette Lamb of St. Paul, Minn., was maid of honor and Ralph Clark was best man. Little Marguerite Corwin in a pretty frock of pink satin and chiffon carried a basket of flowers.

The Hotel Alvarado followed the service at the church.

Mr. and Mrs. McArdle entertained one evening last week with a dinner for their daughter and her bride party. The table was gay with primrose roses and ferns.

At the Alexandria.

A bridge party and tea was presided over yesterday by Mrs. M. A. Newark, Mrs. M. H. Newmark, Mrs. Max Goldsmith and Mrs. Sybil Kaufman. There were 100 guests. In default of the bond he was committed to jail.

Feminine Victims to Sell His Clothes for Pay.

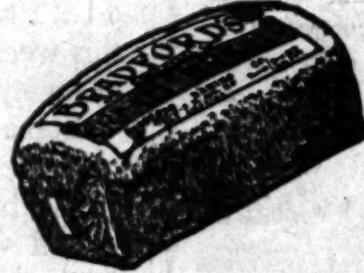

Senor Enrico Robles, whose matador's sword has slain enraged bulls before the eyes of the King of Spain in the imperial ring of Madrid, and whose swart beauty and coal black eyes have captured the hearts of more than one Los Angeles woman, is anxious sought by a bevy of fair damsels who have been victimized and who now say that he has eloped from the city with one of his heaviest creditors.

However, si Señor Don Enrico did not get away scot free. One of his creditors, a determined young woman who loaned him $250, took two detectives and swooped down upon his apartments in the Evans Hotel, No. 1328 Toberman street, and seized Enrico's most precious possession, his gaudy $600 matador's suit of silk and velvet, with trimmings of silver and gold.

As all pomp and vanity is doomed to an inferior end, so Enrico's brave bull fighter's suit is destined to have an ignoble finish, on the Courthouse square, where he will be tried.

His beautiful matador suit, shown in the picture, is to be sold at public auction to satisfy one such debt. It is further alleged that Senor Robles eloped with one of his creditors.

WORLD ALMANAC 1912

is better than ever. Not that it is more complete than ever, but because the world has lived another year and things have progressed and happened in the light of another year's added knowledge and experience. The history of the year just passed is brought down to the last tick of the clock; 365 days of the world's history, in combination with something about almost everything you should know. Users of THE WORLD ALMANAC will tell you to buy it, not borrow it, and make your doubts certainties. Never think you know something when you can know you know it; you don't need a room full of books to explain one fact. When you buy THE WORLD ALMANAC you buy certainty, convenience and knowledge with a consciousness of all three; it is an education to the uneducated, a post-graduate course to the graduate; it is the memory of those who know and the creation of memory in those who don't.

GOLFERS PRACTICE FOR FOURTH LEAGUE MATCH.

BY ALMA WHITAKER.

RIVERSIDE, Feb. 7.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) Visitors from Los Angeles and Redlands have been arriving all day to take part in the fourth golf league match and the qualifying round for the invitation tournament, which takes place Thursday.

"Abe," I asked, "how is it that you get matched for a game of tag, I want a front seat?" he said, "for it would be a wonder." But as a fighter, he is a joke. His way of fighting is to dash around the ring as fast as he can run, and when he does, he won't touch you. That's all he does; just touches you and dodges away again. He simply plays tag. He couldn't break an egg with his fist.

"Well, I'll tell you," he said, "I am my strength. Most fighters wear themselves out with a lot of foolish stunts in training. Some of the greatest fighting in the world has been wasted on punching bags. I train very little, and do my fighting in the ring. I am myself the thing, too. Even the clever fellows like Johnnie Connelly waste their strength fiddling with their arms, waiting for a fellow to come out with them. When I fight a fellow who covers up with his arms, I rest my hands on an arm, and when I am talking to him, just hit him so he gets so sore that he drops his arms."

"Abe," I said, "on the level, now, this coming is said to be the longest nine-hole course in America and is very sporty. It proves the Waterloo of the Annandale players yesterday, who seemed quite baffled by its deceptiveness. It is best described as the path to heaven for only those who keep to the straight and narrow way can hope for salvation."

"Out of bounds," stares at a player menacingly from most of the tees.

TENNIS ON THE SIDE.

PACKY GETS CHILLED FEET."Lays Down" in His Match With Young Erne.*Willie Ritchie Takes His Place and Wins.*McFarland's Manager Says He's Through.

"Packy McFarland's manager told me over the phone that he was through with Packy forever and that he washed his hands of him. He said that Packy was unreliable."—Jack McGuigan, manager of Young Erne.

BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES
PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 7.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) Packy McFarland, in the rage of his manager, "ran out" of his fight with Young Erne set for tonight at the National club. He said he hurt his left eye in the fight with Kid Burns Tuesday night in New York.

Willie Ritchie, who substituted for Ad Wolgast in Los Angeles in the fight with Frank West, again proved to be the child of circumstance.

He has been one of Packy's training partners and took Packy's place, winning a clean-cut victory over Young Erne, knocking him clear through the ropes in the fifth round.

Packy's manager, Emil Thiry, stated frankly that it was a plain case of cold feet on Packy's part and says he is through with the star of the stocky foreigner.

Eddie Murphy, whom Packy is matched to fight next Wednesday in South Bend, Ind., is in a state of wild alarm for fear Packy may also run out of that match.

Packy, meanwhile, seems to have disappeared. He is said to be on board a train bound for Chicago.

The whole affair is one of mystery.

PACKY IS BLACK-OUT.

It seems that when Packy was matched to fight Erne in Philadelphia tonight, his manager asked that he be allowed to appear in some exhibition matches before the fight. Erne's manager consented, not expecting that Thiry would engage in any genuine combat.

When the news came from New York that Packy was matched to fight Kid Burns, who is a dangerous boy at any time, McGuigan, Erne's manager, got out on the phone and gave a mighty protest, threatening to call off the Erne bout.

McFarland simply laughed at the possibility of anything happening to him and assured McGuigan that he could hold his hand to fill the date with Young Erne.

Tuesday night the fight between Kid Burns and Packy took place. McFarland won, but in the second round Burns knocked out McFarland under the left eye and closed it.

PIGHT CALLED OFF.

This afternoon Thiry called up Erne's manager on the long-distance phone from New York and said that the match this evening would have to be called off on account of Packy's swollen eye.

McGuigan asked whether anything else was the matter and was assured that the eye was alone responsible for the calling off of the match.

McGuigan asked that Packy be called to the phone, but Packy would not talk to him, saying that the match was off as far as he was concerned.

Later in the afternoon the phone was again requisitioned and McGuigan had another long talk with Thiry. He offered him extra financial inducements and asked him to postpone the fight until he could be made.

The short right-hand blow delivered by Kilbane was an exact imitation of the way it really happened and the fall that Jimmie Dunn took was the same. I have never seen it done so well as that many in the crowd thought it was real, until Dunn jumped up laughing.

Kilbane was in a happy mood yesterday afternoon. He said that Mrs. Kilbane will arrive next Friday with the baby, and Johnny intends to run out to San Bernardino to see the mother. He will be back in time to do his usual work in the afternoon.

Mrs. Kilbane intended to leave when Johnnie did, but she waited shortly before Johnnie left, and right on top of that, Mrs. Kilbane's father fell and broke his leg.

When Dunn was asked what he thought of Kilbane's chances with Abe Attell he said that he thought that this was Johnny's best chance to defeat Abe, as he was about as clever as any boxer I ever saw.

Gale Bakewell and Mr. Kennedy are the men's prize and in the play-off Kennedy and Mrs. Harry Kearne defeated Bakewell and Miss Wyatt.

Robert Bettner predded at tea-awards, and a dance completed a most delightful day.

The qualifying round to establish the standards of the Hiram Bain cup was pipped by the lady golfer on the Victoria Club links, and those to qualify were: Mrs. Martin Chase, Mrs. Howe, Mrs. Harry Kearne, the Misses Wyatt, Mesdames Oliver, Hewitt, Main, Crump, Gilliland, Parker, Daly, Brown, Husted, Darling, and Misses Pierce, Bakewell, Mattix and Bettner.

This coming is said to be the longest nine-hole course in America and is very sporty. It proves the Waterloo of the Annandale players yesterday, who seemed quite baffled by its deceptiveness. It is best described as the path to heaven for only those who keep to the straight and narrow way can hope for salvation.

NEW AT GAME.

Mrs. Howe is playing an exceptionally good game these days, her driving having improved remarkably during the past month. Miss Babette Wyatt, who only took up golf six weeks ago, is another very pretty player, her long game showing much promise. When she has improved her putting, she will make a valuable addition to the team.

THE ONLY THING THAT KILBANE WOULD HAVE BEEN ABLE TO DO.

Dunn said that he thought Johnny Coulton did too much training while here. Dunn cautioned him several times about working too hard, but Coulton insisted that he needed it. This mistake is made very often by the best men in the ring. In their anxiety to enter a ring in good condition they often overdo it and go stale.

Tommy Kilbane is rounding out good condition and is working fine.

SANTA CLARA WINS.

STANFORD UNIVERSITY (Cal.). Feb. 7.—(By P. Night Wires.) The Santa Clara College nine defeated Stanford here today by a score of 2 to 0. Sullivan of Santa Clara struck out six men and Howes of Stanford seven.

LONG SECURES NEW PITCHER.

Moore to Quit Salesman's Job to Play Baseball.

Served His Time as College Hearer for Two Years.

Oakland Team Is to Train This Year at Livermore.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 7.—Manager of the San Francisco Coast League baseball team announced today that he had signed Pitcher William J. Moore of San Antonio, Tex. Moore is 25 years old, stands six feet, weighs 200 pounds and uses his left arm in the box. His career began in the Southwest University. During the past two years he has traveled as a salesman, but expects to have no trouble in recovering his old form. The Oakland team has selected Livermore, forty miles away, for its training camp. A fair diamond and a large bath-house and plunge are at its disposal. The squad goes into training on March 4.

SALT LAKE BUYS MAN FROM VERNON.

Dick Cooley, manager of the Salt Lake team, who is in this city, yesterday bought from Hal Hogan of the Vernon team, Chickie Kelley, who is Hogan drafted last year from the Missouri team of the Union Association.

This bird played 111 games last year with Missoula and Helena and 427 and 364. He is touted as a good ball player, but Hogan does not figure that he can use him, since he has Brown, Sullivan and himself as receivers.

Tom Tennant Ready.
Tom Tennant, former first baseman for the San Francisco team and who has been sold to the St. Louis Americans, has sent back his contract signed and expects to leave for the team March 1. Tom has been taking the best of care of himself this winter and appears to be in fine shape. All these stories about dissipation are all bunk, for he has been on duty every day in 1912. Hogan's billiard room and looks the part of a man ready to play ball.

McIntyre on Deck.
CHICAGO, Feb. 7.—[By A. P. Night Wire.] Pitcher Harry McIntyre, on whom President Charles Murphy of the Cubs had reported to have asked waivers a few days ago, has sent his signed contract for next season to headquarters last night. McIntyre has been spending the winter at El Paso, where he said he had already pitched several games.

Anderson in Right.
SOUTH BEND, Feb. 7.—[By A. P. Night Wire.] J. E. Anderson, former outfielder of the Pittsburgh National League club, and Everett Robinson of Washington, have purchased the Wheeling Club, which will be known as 2800. Anderson will manage the team and play center field. Robinson will look after the finances of the club.

Clark for Lincoln.
Wilkie Clark, a catcher who has been spending the winter in this city, will probably play again this year with the Lincoln team of the Western League. A contract has been sent him, but he has not yet signed it. According to his statement yesterday, Clark has been playing on some of the Winter League teams and is in good shape.

Umpire Signs.
NEW YORK, Feb. 7.—[By A. P. Night Wire.] William J. Klem today signed a three-year contract as a National League umpire. Mr. Klem has officiated as umpire in the senior organization for seven years.

Magnus In City.
Dick Cooley, manager of the Salt Lake team, of the Union Association, is in this city on a pleasure trip and will probably pick up a few half-balls in this end of the State before he leaves for home.

Madden En Route.
Tom Madden, the well-known catcher, left Texas last Sunday for this city on his way to Sacramento where he expects to play this summer.

EDDIE MURPHY.

READY FOR PACKY.
[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]
CHICAGO, Feb. 7.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Eddie Murphy, who is matched to meet Packy McFarland at South Bend, Ind., Wednesday night, today surprised surprise that Packy called off this fight with "Young" Erne at Philadelphia. "Mickey" McBride, Murphy's manager, said it shows that McFarland has a wholesome respect for the Boston lightweight and wants to give his injured eye a good chance to get well.

Murphy is not saying much about the McFarland match, but the manager in which he has settled down to the fight, and the fighters are to meet in the 135 pounds at 5 o'clock on the day of the fight.

McFarland is expected in the city tomorrow. His cousin, Johnny McFarland, received word to tell Packy that he should get in town to meet him in the ring.

According to the fighters' cousin, Packy will begin active training at once for the Murphy bout.

Monte Attele Loses.
INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Feb. 7.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Chick Hayes of Memphis had a good shade the best of Monte Attele in their ten-round bout here tonight. When the bell sounded for the close of the fight, Attele was bruised and bleeding, and there was a cut on the side of his nose, also a bruise off his left eye, while Hayes was unmarked.

High jump.
Broad dash.
Shot jump.
Pound shot put.
Broad Javelin (3 hurdles, 2 feet high.)
Hurry (4 feet, half mile).

This meet will be followed in all The Times suburban district as well as in the final meet of the city schools, which will be about June 1. In the June meet, two divisions will be made in all events, junior and senior, boys five feet or under in height being limited to the junior events. The junior programme will differ from senior only that a 305-yard run will replace the 315 senior event. The six pound shot will be used in place of the 7 pound. Prizes in the June meet will be awarded to first and second place men in junior and senior events. In the home meets at the city schools the senior or junior of events will be entirely in the hands of the teachers as well as in manner of awarding the prizes.

The model of The Times track and field events for the grammar school students of Southern California has been adopted, and the younger students are training with regularity. The events, including the broad jump, have been modified to give all the participants as good a chance to do their best as possible. The broad jump will make the most interesting feature of The Times programme, and a distinct feature of The Times plan of modified exercises for the younger athletes of Southern California and the world. The Times track and field meets will be arranged for experienced athletes of experience who know the capabilities of the young athletes on the athletic field, and know the best way to carry them forward in the development of the boy, not his inferior.

In the first plan of a final meet for the city schools, a single programme without junior and senior divisions was outlined, but the urgent demand for events for boys of the intermediate grades, as well as for the younger students in the meet. Instead of twelve events, ten were announced in the first outline of the programme, but will be increased to fifteen.

The Times will be vacation trip to The Times Catalina Camp for thirty-two boys, sixteen juniors and sixteen seniors.

COLLEGE BASEBALL TO BE MAJOR SPORT AT U.S.C.

BY BOWIE

Baseball leaves the marks when Len Burrell triggers and starts the Southern California season's race. And some we have it from the Stanford "varsity" in the south during the first week try to draw new U.S.C. players, purple and gold uniform Stanford will have to go.

The Liberal Arts is backing the Law behind the purple and gold. We have seen the boys shaken hands and are back to back under the "varsity" sign.

His colleagues have combed Burrell. He knows baseball, and some college athlete him.

He is a war-horse. Capt. Maddekin, who is now no man on the Coast, who can show Maddie the big mite to the captain of the baseball team, is now in shape or not. Young Don Wallace of prep school is a worthy understudy. Wallace has a winning air, and will probably prance around when Maddock is gone.

George Bryan, formerly of Poly, is a good player, but Hunt of the law firm of Hunt & Frazee should stay.

Curtis Foss has bag and all related to the meet. We have the goods necessary for the growth. A bunch of new ones. Millions of last year's one of the best cinched.

Don't forget the little boys. The baseball team of the northern squad, together with Mr. Bridwell as pitcher, will march on the field, and will win in a well-planned invasion of the University of California field.

BOXING FETE TONIGHT.

S.C.A.C. Plans to Entertain Big Crowd in New Quarters—Variety of Talent.

The semi-monthly smoker of the Southern California Athletic Club since the new quarters at 114½ South Third street were occupied is scheduled for this evening.

Elmer Elmer has arranged an interesting program of entertainment of members and guests of the athletic club and the physical culture association. The club director expects to entertain about 600 and have provide seats for that number.

Sparring exhibitions will be the piece de resistance of the evening. Elmer has secured eighteen boxers, including two or three who have seen service in the professional ring, to occupy the center of the stage during the night.

These men expect to show the spectators plenty of science and skill and will be lively and interesting. All the men are not in the best of training, each bout will be for three two-minute rounds only. The club physician will examine each boxer carefully before he dons the big mitts to make sure his heart is normal.

The following boxers will participate in the sport: Louis Rees, Al Kaufman, Ruby Monroe, Sam Kline, Jim Johnson, Harry Clegg, Eddie Huddy, Billy Welsh, Oscar Maiter, Harry Leary, Joe Walker, Al Scherer, Art Crooks, Art Lewis, Charlie Gardner, George Sutton, Jack Clark, Howard Claussen, Joe Hansen and Walter Cunningham.

JOHNSON WILL GET THOUSAND DOLLARS A MINUTE FROM NEW YORK CLUB FOR HIS TROUBLE.

[EXCERPT FROM THE TIMES.]

CHICAGO, Feb. 7.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Jack Johnson, world's champion, will leave for New York tomorrow to earn articles to meet an "unusually large sum" before the Fairmont Athletic Club the part of next month. The champion received a telegram from Baron Wilhalm von Hirsch, who offered Johnson $10,000 to box ten rounds without much training. Thirty thousand dollars for thirty minutes of boxing is pretty soft money and Jack Johnson is the man who is going to grab it.

CLINE RETURNS, WITH BAGS OF DUCKS, IN CHALMERS CAR

GEORGE CLINE, one of the local sports, just returned from a week's stay at Lakeside, where he bagged the limit of ducks and geese. While in the domain of Waldo Hempel he recovered from a severe attack of typhoid fever, gained fifteen pounds and was convalescent after he had been there four days. He says the shooting was excellent on the lake at the popular resort of San Diego county.

Geese flying high over the waters were the particular mark for Cline. He drove to the southwest in his Chalmers "Thirty-six." This is the latest news car which Cline purchased this year, and with which he has made a number of tours. He was out in the machine for at least three weeks the opening months of the year. Then he was confined to his bed with typhoid and was obliged to take a rest.

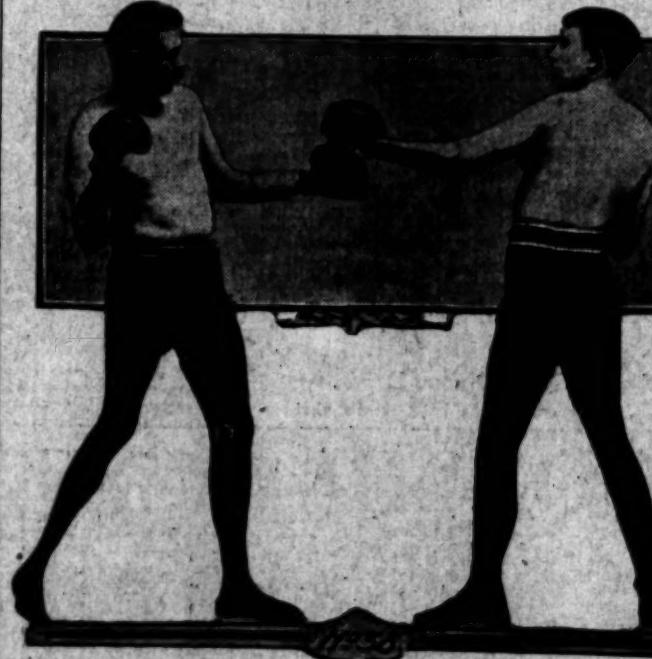

Another popular game at Lakeside which Cline joined in heartily was golf. He scored high in several matches, and defeated Hempel in every game in which they played. It is interesting to note the story which Hempel kept regarding the condition of Cline during the stay of the young sportsman in the Lakeside country. It was a case of summing up the number of pounds gained each day by the patient.

This is excellent shooting at Lakeside this year, and the lake is crowded with ducks, and Cline shot the limit for seven days during his stay. The ducks are coming in clouds and the geese are flying well. Baron Von Hempel has provided a number of new blinds on the lake and at least one of them is due to those who make the journey to the land of the milk-fed chicken on the week-end parties.

To hear Cline tell of his trip it was one of the most successful of the season. When his Chalmers "Thirty-six" was cranked and sent away toward the back bay country Cline began to take those long breaths which are so clear of the hospital. He needed the air and enjoyed his stay in the hills of San Diego county.

While Hempel was preparing for the cross-country trip which he is to be handled by the Automobile Club of Southern California, the local sportsman was out on the lake in a small boat taking care of himself. He shot a number of birds, and much quantities that his friends were surprised when he reached home with his gun bags loaded with birds.

When Cline reached here yesterday he found that the roads are excellent all the way to Lakeside and says he had no trouble making the run down in seven hours. He is prepared to engagement at a West Side theater, but he announced he doesn't know who he will box in New York.

Hero's Return.
BILL DESMOND WRITES "PINK."

Favorite Actor Gives His Antipodean Impressions.

Now Playing "Jimmy Valentine" in New Zealand.

Longs for Los Angeles and Its Good People.

BY WILLIAM DESMOND.
How-do-you-do!
I hope Los Angeles hasn't forgotten me.
For, believe me—I certainly haven't forgotten Los Angeles!
Writing from the Grand Hotel in Dunedin, New Zealand, this 15th day of January, 1912. My surroundings, while entirely foreign to the eastern part of the United States, are, after all, not so very different from Southern California, and often, here under the Southern Cross—I believe that's what all the old-time writers used to say when their whaling vessels took them south of the Equator—I am so strongly reminded of dear old "Loo" that I am actually homesick.

Just at present I am starring through the Antipodes in "Alas Jim—My Valentine." We are doing a smashing success, and the way the Australians and New Zealanders take to the typically New York drama and metropolitan slang is something amazing.

When I'm playing it I actually feel at home, and the interpretations the audience puts on familiar phrases and expressions sometimes hands me a good laugh.

Of course, it would be the same with us, were we to be set down here to play a play written entirely in the patois of Whitechapel. But I dare say we would enjoy it, even as we enjoy the pastime of "The Pantomime of the Third Floor Back," and the cockney talk in "The Dawn of a Tomorrow."

I had a very successful season—or, season, rather, before I was taken back—with Katherine Grey, who is now, I believe, playing the name part in Henry W. Savage's "Every Woman" company.

A splendid actress and a charming woman, she was certainly an artistic help and a good companion during our long co-starring tour, and I think that both of us will remember to the last the happy days of the "Gangling Loyalty" of the Australian people.

Williamson, the impresario down here, is the Belasco, Frohman, and Oberholser of his country, all rolled into one.

As for the intelligence of the audience, one finds them surprisingly up to date on all points of literature and anything else in the United States will have begun, a stock record will have been established and a big boom to Los Angeles as a theatrical producing center will have been given.

However, travel has done wonders for the mind in New Zealand, and I dare say that the majority of the better classes, who take long but very frequent voyages to England and the continent, are reading more contemporary authors than ever before, and those who live in one town all their lives and wait for everything to come to them.

However, all this doesn't keep me from longing for Los Angeles, and talking about her.

In fact, two weeks ago, an irate English reviewer referred to me as "eccentric" as far as Los Angeles is concerned, and I hoped my bosom would find rest there, if I never got back during life.

I trust it won't be that bad, though.

Mrs. Desmond has gone to the great outtings of New Zealand. It is one of the great outings of New Zealand. Sometimes a stray Times pink reaches me, and the good old local theatres give me a combination of hiccups heart-sickness and hilarious roarings.

I am more than pleased at Ollie's great success; I knew he would arrive.

Regards to everybody along the Southern California White Way that I probably wouldn't recognize now. And, believe me, folks always

THE CAMPUS TO CELEBRATE.

Two Hundred Performances Tomorrow Night—Walter De Leon to Direct Some of the Numbers.

With the curtain going up at the Grand tomorrow night the two hundred performances of "The Campus" will begin, a stock record will have been established and a big boom to Los Angeles as a theatrical producing center will have been given.

Never before in the history of the arts has any piece been presented for 200 times by the same company in the same theater outside of New York City or Chicago. That record could be made in Los Angeles.

Shows, however, are not more cosmopolitan than they are in Los Angeles, where people live in one town all their lives and wait for everything to come to them.

However, all this doesn't keep me from longing for Los Angeles, and talking about her.

What promises to be an interesting exhibition of lantern slides is to be given under the auspices of the Automobile Club of Southern California this evening in the Chamber of Commerce auditorium. Scenes showing the delights of automobile touring and views of the good roads in Los Angeles county will be shown and State will be given also the activities of the various high-class organizations. The slides all deal with the wonders of the southern portion of the State and are clear and have been taken at great expense and trouble.

While the East is shivering in the grasp of the Ice King we are to have an opportunity to see the delights of the Southern California sun and scenes of lantern slides prepared by the Automobile Club of Southern California. are well worth seeing and as there is to be no admission charge we can all of us afford to attend.

H. O. Harrison is here. When the orchestra in L. V. played "Hall, Hall the Truth Has Come" Harry realized at once that he was being welcomed royally. He has descended to remain for the rest of the year. He is still ten years old. Harry is looking for a new location for the Peerless and Everitt lines. He needs more room and while he is here will take in every sit situation on the part of automobile row. The Peerless deserves a better home. The Everitt must have a larger one. This combination is making H. O. hustle with unusual amount of energy and before the year is over it is almost certain that H. O. Harrison will have a new location to announce. He may not announce it though. That is the trouble of late. Everitt must have a larger one. This combination is making H. Willie Hoppe, author of "The Big Sphynx," will direct the orchestra during the early part of the evening. He is going to do this to prove that he really is a musician.

WILLIE HOPPE WINS.

NEW YORK, Feb. 7.—(By A. P. Night Wire.) Willie Hoppe for the second time within a few months, successfully defended his title of world's best billiards player against George Sutton of Chicago as challenger, here tonight. The final score was 500 points to 230, and the champion's average was 29.7-17, with his cue work was disappointing. His average was 18.8-17 and his best run 61. Hoppe closed his string with an impressive run of 78.

While Davis returned from San Diego Tuesday morning after a successful trip to the southern city. He disposed of one of the big Oldsmobile "Limited" cars, and also delivered an Olds "Special." He drove down in the Special and says the roads are in first-class condition. Davis says he will be in good shape for a rolling vacation that will make them excellent this coming summer. THE BIRD'S POI DINNER.

Unique Gastronomic Function of the Tully Play's Hawaiians in New York City.

The Hawaiians connected with Oliver Walton's Tully's drama, "The Bird of Paradise," at Maxine Elliott's Theater gave a poi dinner as a compliment to the white members of the company on the stage of Maxine Elliott's Theater immediately following the matinee performance of the play yesterday. The event was conducted in true native style and in manner quite removed from the customs in vogue in this country. Poi is one of the favorite dishes of the natives of the Hawaiian Islands. It is eaten from large bowls, every diners using a spoon or fork. Only the fingers are employed in conducting the food to the mouth. In addition to poi several other dishes were served, all cooked by Hawaiians. W. K. Kolomoku, who was the favorite hula dancer of the last Hawaiian King, supervised the "spread," and also entertained with songs which he accompanied on their musical instruments. All were in native Hawaiian dress, even to several white members of the company. Loretta Taylor won the greatest award, as she appears in the character of Liana in the first act of the play. Guy Bates Post was dressed in the garb of the beachcomber Lewis S. Stone, and the large character was in the second act. Theodore Roberts had on the planter suit he wears in the first act. Pamela Gaythorne was necessary dressed as an American girl, but Albert Poole was dressed as the priest of Pele. The dinner occupied the entire time between the matinee and night performances.

DAILY BEAUTY HINT: A local beauty specialist who has thoroughly tested the efficacy of a new depilatory, tells me that the effect is very satisfactory. The application of the liquid, or rather semi-liquid, is entirely painless and after a few treatments there is said to be no trace of the offending hair.

It is of the fact that I belong to the Chamber of Philosophy. I think it helps one to have a well-dressed gown.

A friend who thinks the same goes in a while, on a morning walk and have the best kind of dress. And when you know it is a "Smile" all the time. It is probably so, when the sides do not go with you. Of course we know the name of the gown.

The sides are bitterly in need of it and we should rejoice when it comes as though this skies would be done with it.

Among the new importations of lace I saw in a local store some exquisite examples of shadow lace in a rose pattern. Entirely novel and inexpressibly pretty were these filmy bands and edgings, fit for decorating gowns of gauze.

Odd Uses.

Bottles are put to uses, in the season's new gowns, unique and unorthodox. I have seen a bottle which had a trimmings a double row of lace black satin buttons, down the back, each two joined by a frog of folded black satin.

Imported gowns of silk in soft weave, white pearl buttons were effectively used, black silk thread being sewn from each pierced eye to the edge of the outer rim.

Expanding.

An "Expansion Sale" in one of the exclusive ladies' furnishing houses, offers an opportunity for the purchase of fine lingerie blouses, suits, wraps and hats at greatly reduced prices. The house holds on the best garments and goods, so that a cut means a saving upon price without diminution in quality.

Fashion Hints.

The skirts to the demim-tailored models are frequently trimmed at the left side, or they are made in tunic effects.

Black-and-white furs are a fad of the last season; foremost in elegance and expense are Hudson seal and real ermine.

The fashion of black has been overdone and the soft colors and lines of the season's personality have come back into fashion.

Notwithstanding the long reign of stripes, they still have an important representation in every class of material.

Many of the smartest suits have collars, revers and cuffs of white broad-cord, ratine,erry cloth, broadcloth, plique or lace.

The Resurrection.

WORDS OF HOPE FOR BEREAVED.

INSPIRING SENTIMENTS AT A WOMAN'S FUNERAL.

Several Hundred Friends Attend and Floral Tributes Are Many and Remarkable—Departed Is Exalted for Her Virtues as Wife, Mother and Christian.

Handbags.

In the last season is holding a not over kind of "ambulator" for women. From the ordinary garment to the most luxurious carriage, it has topped English paramours, twin-tipped walkers and walking with goes on necks up and down; all are now at "for less" prices.

House in Spring's Lap.

This is what I thought when I saw a young broad brimmed Panama hat trimmed with a band of embroidery.

The triumph of the Resurrection was the ascendant note yesterday afternoon at the funeral of Mrs. Sarah A. Stewart, wife of Lyman Stewart, at her family residence, No. 625 Lucas street.

An opening prayer was offered by Dr. E. W. Blew and a closing prayer by Dr. R. A. Torrey.

Dr. A. B. Prichard, pastor of the Central Presbyterian Church, read St. Paul's wonderful statement of immortality in the fourth chapter of the First Thessalonians, taking as the text of a tender discourse the 13th verse, reading, "Wherefore, comfort ye one another with these words."

The Christian, Dr. Prichard said, is different from all his friends and his confidence and hope, over and above the shadows of his grief always there is light. The solace of Christian virtue is dearer than the ties of kindred and of friends, and a consolation above all human sympathy. God's care, His confidence and His friendship, the minister said, are common to all persons, but the joy of his message appeals to the understanding of other classes who have made themselves the peculiar subjects of divine grace by His great salvation. Those who have been drawn by the Spirit into His gracious presence alone know how sweet it is to live in Christ, and those who have been born again by His Word and by His Spirit, have a partnership in His eternal verities. They only drink from the springs of Christ's consolation.

The Christian, Dr. Prichard said, is the fact that since the early '70s she has lived in Christ even as now she has faith and in him.

Dr. Prichard said that men are likely to fear that the earth is only a school for spiritual training that it is only the drilling ground and that the real work of life is to come afterward. Earth's joys, he said, are real only as they spring from man's redemption in Christ and the true service and joy of man belongs to the life that is to come. Men are likely to take a view of the resurrection, he said, that the scriptures do not warrant. They have a habit of speaking lightly of Gabriel and his bugle blast, but Saint Paul says that Jesus will come this day with a triumphant shout to claim his own.

Of the same nature were the comforting words spoken by Rev. T. C. Horton, who said the test of a religion is in its face death and the religion of Christ brings gladness in the shadow of the valley in that those who are no more among men are with Jesus, which is far better. Those who sleep in Christ, Dr. Horton said, open their eyes to glorify him.

A quartette from the Bible Institute sang. It was composed of Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Peckham, H. J. Hill and Mrs. J. Kellogg. As piano accompaniment were Freda Peckham, Mrs. Peckham, W. E. MacVeagh, J. M. Irvine, C. N. Nye, and James Valentine.

One of the art stores there is a room of valentines which are made of paper. They are made of paper and dressed in paper.

There are several things which a man nowadays, in spite of the high cost of living, can buy a yard of excellent table cloths, will buy a really good piece, will buy a combination of a table cloth, a handsome fancy piece of brie-brac. It is a bank account.

Buy Small.

I recently observed a number of small flat or apartment houses. There was a table with four chairs so compactly beneath the floor where they are scarcely noticed.

There is the folding sofa, which leaves to room upon occupying a wide space, and for holding the nameless armchair, which does all but hold the clothes. For all these there is a place.

For the heart of many men, however, the fastidious furniture stands and a wardrobe couch which are the long rooms and furniture in the best of taste, and the common characteristics too often used.

EACH NEEDS TREATMENT.

Two Belligerents Call at the Receiving Hospital for Cure Received During Quarrel.

Victor and victim of a street fight applied for treatment at the Receiving Hospital yesterday. The fight took place at 12:30 o'clock in the afternoon at 125 W. 26th street. Louis Parisian, a barber, No. 125 West Fifth street, arrived first. He carried his right hand wrapped in a handkerchief. The skin had been punctured.

How did you do it?" asked Dr. Kline.

"Hit a man," replied Parisian.

Half an hour later a man giving his name as George Gould, and his address, 318 Madre, came to the hospital holding a handkerchief to his face. There was a cut on his upper lip, and another on the inside of the lip.

"Where did you get 'em?" asked Dr. Kline.

"Man hit me," mused Gould.

"That's funny," mused the surgeon.

FINANCIAL NEWS SUMMARY.

(Published by Logan & Bryan, Members New York and Boston Stock Exchanges, Bradbury Bldg., Los Angeles.)

NEW YORK, Feb. 7.—Americans in London quiet and irregular.

Underwood forces expect to defeat Hays in the trial tonight, would refer inquiry to banking and currency committee.

Senate finance committee hearings on steel tariff bill begin today.

American Can Company annual report shows 1911 net profit for preferred against 4.4% for common.

United States Circuit Court enjoins United States Steel from demands wanted by government as evidence.

Secretary Wilson assumed of suppressing Florida land fraud inquiry reports and land boomers.

Porterfield and two delegates to Republican convention one pledged to Taft and other to Roosevelt.

Independent tin plate manufacturers again asked Senate to rescind peace quota for machine.

Twelve industrials advanced 12-100 per cent, twenty active rails 20-100 per cent.

While price movements during today's session were rather irregular, still the undercurrent was quite steady and the market was well supplied with accounts until the result of the Democratic convention on the money trust issue was known.

It appeared to be the consensus of opinion that the whole market would be affected by the decision and currency committee and in this connection it was decided to take a look at the lines as would have a disturbing influence on finance and enterprises. Of course, the market was not disturbed if there is no money trust, but when it is, the market is bound to be.

Nowadays are more often conducted with a view of securing political advantage than of getting the best deal. It was realized that tinkering with so vital an organ as our financial fabric should be left to the experts, and the bugle of the trumpets. According to our Washington advice, as indicated in our previous column, the market is entertained in good quarters that the conservative element will dominate the situation. It is to be hoped that it will prove to be the case, but it is impossible to be decided improvement in investment will be made in the security market will be the better feeling of buying of steel.

Industrials in the aluminum field quite impressive, and in addition quite active. The trend of the market was buoyant. In connection with the latter, the buying in great part was the result of the recent increase in values in petroleum and it is said that the company of late has greatly increased its production, not only for a financial, but also an earning standpoint. The situation generally speaking is favorable, and the market is not lacking an aggressive investment demand.

Recently felt that a disposition to secure better control over operating expenses and regular dividends can be added Union Electric expects tomorrow. The producers statement will probably show a shrinkage in the surplus of red metal.

SWEET VOICE CHARMS CROWD.

Schumann-Heink Before the School Children.

Says Love Is Greatest Thing in the World.

Hundreds of Grown-Ups Hear Songstress.

The Pasadena schools were closed at noon yesterday and about 2500 children and 2000 of their elders and teachers listened to Mme. Schumann-Heink sing from the steps of the main the way of the newspaper men, but here I seem free to talk and act. It is believed that the confessed dynamiter will be the star witness before the grand jury, which will not fail to work on the more serious phase of the investigation before this afternoon.

Defense Consults Prosecution. The fact that Darrow's counsel Rogers passed an hour in the office of Asst. Dist.-Atty. Ford yesterday morning, prior to his return to the former head of the McNamee defense is trying to make terms with the prosecution. This was denied by Rogers who said his client is only available for a special trial.

Former Judge Hilton, general counsel for the Western Federation of Miners will be a witness for the State against Darrow. Hilton was associated in the Moyer-Haywood-Peterson bone case, which he won in several clashes with Darrow. When the McNamees were first arrested it was planned to have Hilton retained as attorney for the defense, but it is understood Darrow positively refused to have anything to do with the case if Hilton was in any way connected with it.

The case of Darrow will be set for trial at the Throop Polytechnic Institute at 2 o'clock. She sang an aria, "For the Lord Is Mindful of His Own," from the oratorio, "St. Paul," and the many youngsters listened open-mouthed and enraptured to her notes of clear gold.

A principal of one of the city schools ardently declared that that ten minutes will be worth more to the children who were present than several days of studies in the school-room.

"They will remember it all their lives," he said, "and it will be an inspiration to them."

The crowd was dense about the building with a fringe of automobiles at the sides when Mme. Schumann-Heink and her party arrived. A cheer went up as she walked through the door of the building, having entered from the rear. She walked at once to the topmost step and addressed the youthful portion of her audience.

"My English is bad," she said. "I am a German, and cannot help it. But I am an American at heart. I love you all, and my heart, I love the thing—love. Love is a cushion in your hearts. Love your parents, your sisters and your brothers. Love. That is all I can say. I love you dearly."

She continued with other endearments for a few minutes, reaching out toward the children before her with her arms, then walked over to the piano and sang.

She was to have sung another selection, but lack of time prevented. President James A. B. Sherer of the institute presented her with an impromptu floral gift. It was a spray of orchids, almost as high as her shoulder. She then returned inside, where an informal reception was held in one of the school rooms, at which Mme. Schumann-Heink met about 250 leading Pasadenaans, who were the school's guests.

The singer was attired plainly in a suit of dark material with a fine stripe running through it. She wore an immense feather hat and a black handbag.

As soon as the event was over announcement was made that all of the children would be admitted free of charge to the polo match, then about to begin at Tournament Park, near the site of the old home, the park like an avalanche and there joy reigned for the remainder of the afternoon.

SAN FRANCISCO MEN ON TODAY.

THEY WITNESSED BEFORE COUNTY GRAND JURY.

Object of District Attorney is to get Murkin Indictments Against Labor-Unions. Bosses Believed to Have Conspired to Blow Up the "Times" Building.

San Francisco witnesses will testify before the county grand jury today in pursuance of the grand jury term of the District Attorney to secure indictments, if possible, against labor-unions, which are believed to have conspired to blow up the Times Building. As the crime resulted in the death of twenty employees, true bills charging murder may be returned in due course against several San Francisco walking delegates.

Orville E. McManal and Detective McLaren of the Burns Agency went over their testimony before the recent Federal grand jury with Deputy District Attorney Keetch yesterday. "It took a powerful fellow," grins McManal, as he paused on the corridor of the District Attorney's office. "In Indianapolis I kept out of an early trial. The date is to be fixed next Wednesday.

Preparing for the Work. Though it is expected that several San Franciscans laboring here are among those indicted at Indianapolis, there is no certainty that any local union walking delegates are involved. However, the local union heads are preparing the court and have already retained Job H. H. Moore and Compte Davis to look after their interests. If any caps are sent to the United States Marshal here for trial, they will be held here by the men under indictment to appear before the United States Commissioner to give bail. Arrests, if made, will probably be on Saturday, which seems to be the day name for getting action in the Federal indictments on the Pacific Coast.

INTO NEW QUARTERS.

Belle White Home for Children to Bid Farewell to Old Quarters With Special Programme Tonight.

The Belle White Home for Children will bid a farewell to their old-time quarters at No. 822 Mateo street with an entertainment to be given there at 8 o'clock this evening. The programme signifies the demolition of the old home, the site of which is occupied for some years to the remodeled residence on East Side Boulevard formerly occupied by ex-Mayor Hadley.

The programme consists in a song and march by the children of the home, addresses by members of the board of directors and by Miss White, musical numbers by the children, the white minstrel, the Christ Church choir and by the children themselves. The teachers have expended great care on the preparation of the exercises, and a decided performance is assured.

The removal of the home is made necessary by the notable growth of its patronage and of the demands made upon it. The new quarters have a capacity of about seventy children, and are surrounded by large grounds, and will be able to accommodate ten houses, which will considerably add to the number who can be cared for.

At Mrs. Lee Hadley's new Dickens table talk was indulged in and Mrs. H. R. Boynton gave an appreciation of Charles Dickens, while Miss E. A. Packard read Bret Harte's "Dinner in Camp."

After the there was a reception in the parlors of the club house with an impromptu programme, songs and dancing.

The Dickens characters were assumed by the following club members:

Mrs. Squares jerked Wackford, Jr., with his crop of blonde hair, across the stage, to the delight and amusement of the crowd, and the Micawbers were the last to provoke peal after peal of laughter.

"How on earth did Mr. Micawber make his head look so bald?" and "Did Capt. Cuttle and Sairy Gamp actually have a front tooth extracted

Would Send Troops to Chihuahua Through Territory of United States.

American Plans to Mobilize Great Army Along the Mexican Border.

State Department, However, Denies that Intervention Is Contemplated.

IN MEXICO CITY, Feb. 8.—Stirred by the rebellion in Northern Mexico, President Madero today asked the permanent committee of Congress for permission to call a special session of the national Senate from which the President desires authority to communicate with the American government relative to sending troops through United States territory to enter Chihuahua.

President Madero said the conditions were such as to make it impossible to aid the rebel-infested region without great delay, unless such a routing of troops was permitted.

A SPECIAL SESSION. The committee also considered today the petition of a group of delegates who asked that a special session of Congress be called to consider the best means of coping with the growing revolt.

The committee sent both petitions to a subcommittee, which is expected to report within eight days.
